

Special Speaker: Jim Van Gelderen

Evangelist Jim Van Gelderen is A 1982 graduate of Bob Jones University. He also received an MA from BJU in 1984 and served as staff evangelist until 1998.

For 28 years he has traveled with the Minutemen Evangelistic Team—a group that ministers to churches and their teens, primarily through their “Special Forces” program.

In addition to traveling with the Team, he serves as the Vice President of Baptist College of Ministry, a position he has held since 1999.

What to Bring

- Bible
- flashlight
- extra cash
- snacks
- games
- activity-appropriate clothing
- jacket /sweatshirt/umbrella

Dress Guidelines

Men: Jeans/slacks and collared shirts for chapel and seminars. Knee-length shorts and T-shirts are acceptable for activities. No tank tops, cut-off shirts, or sleeveless of any style, please.

Ladies: Knee-length skirts/dresses are encouraged for services. Very loose-fitting pants, knee-length fashions, and full T-shirts may be worn for activities. No sleeveless tops or low necklines (front or back).

In all fashions, modesty is the policy; please do not distract from the spiritually focused atmosphere we are trying to create. We reserve the option to ask for a change of attire if necessary.
